

L e s s o n 8 Just Out of Curiosity

S i d e A

P a r t 1

A Fill in the blanks with the proper words, listening to the CD.

- I
- 1 Perhaps it's the () () in me.
 - 2 Maybe I'm just an () romantic.
 - 3 But for some reason, I find myself turning to the personals section in every newspaper () ().
 - 4 I have been happily married for nineteen years and I'm certainly not () () () ().
 - 5 Yet, I find myself attracted to these personals, because hopes and dreams of everyday life () () () them.

Comprehension Check Listen to the CD and answer the following questions.
(after listening , you have 30 seconds to think about)

B True or false question.

- 1 The writer is a journalist who writes the personals column in a newspaper.()
- 2 It is nineteen years since the writer has been married, so now the writer is not interested in the personals section. ()

C Choose one sentence as the right answer that agree with the content of Part 1.

A The author is attracted to the personals because ().

- 1 she is looking for a new husband.
- 2 there are hopes and dreams of everyday life in them
- 3 she is a hard-nosed reporter and is always looking for something new
- 4 she believes she will be able to find her hopes and dreams in them